

PROJECT MANAGER

THE OPPORTUNITY

Under the general direction of the Project Development & Delivery Director, this position is responsible for supporting future expansion projects related to pipeline and facilities. The incumbent must be able to work flexible hours and meet the requirements of a 24/7 operation. This is a contract role for one to three years.

SCOPE OF RESPONSIBILITIES

- Working as part of the Access Team this is a full time contract position to provide support services to the project team during design and construction
- Coordinate and supervise third party consultants and engineering contractors, as required, in relation to maintenance capital projects.
- Utilize project management, risk management, and project controls skills to manage capital projects.
- Support a working environment that strives to meet HSE objectives.
- Interact with multiple stakeholders and team members internally and externally.

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS/COMPETENCIES/EDUCATION:

- Pipeline and facility project management with minimum 5-8 yrs experience;
- Strong project management and communication skills;
- Experience in comparable technical, operational and project management roles.
- Good understanding of the technical, construction and operating aspects of pipelines and related facilities.
- Solid technical knowledge of pipeline and facility design codes, standards and regulations;
- Construction management, procurement and contracting experience an asset;
- Ability to work in a fast paced and rapidly changing environment.
- Strong team orientation, demonstrating a high level of cooperation.

Interested candidates should submit resumes to hr@accesspipeline.com.
We thank all for their interest; however only those considered for an interview will be contacted.